Law Effective In August

New Sign Control Committee Meets To Develop A Program

The Arlington Sign Control Committee, appointed by Town Manager, Donald R. Marquis, held its first meeting Jan. 8, to develop a program for the orderly implementation of the Zoning By-Law section on signs that goes into effect in August of 1970.

The committee is composed of five members: Robert Anese, Chairman, David A. Leone, Donald Manzelli, Jack Kenny, and Leo T. Young.

The members met with Leo B. Byrne, the Acting Building Inspector, to set up a program of establishing what business, industrial, and professional signs will be in violation of Section 25 of the Zoning By-Law.

During the next few weeks, the Acting Building Inspector will be conducting field work along Massachusetts Avenue, Broadway, Summer Street, Medford Street, and other streets to develop a list of all signs that appear to be in violation. The Committee will then work with the list to develop a program of notifying the businessmen so that an orderly transition can be made by the August, 1970, effective date.

David A. Leone pointed out to the committee that the Sign By-Law requiring the removal of all signs not conforming to the new By-Law was adopted by Town Meeting in 1965.

Five years were allowed before the By-Law became effective to permit the businessmen to get the economic value out of the existing signs.

Any businessman contemplating erecting a new sign or replacing his existing signs in the near future should talk to the Building Inspector or to the Director of Planning and Community Development so that he will not have to put up new signs again in August of 1970. The Committee would like to stress that they want to work with the businessmen to provide for an orderly transition.

To Restore Funds

Local WEMBROC Officials To Meet With OEO, Ted Kennedy

Another week has brought some new developments in the efforts of WEMBROC to get back the $51,000 funds cut by OEO.

Harry McCabe of Arlington, who last week became the acting president of WEMBROC (Western Metropolitan Boston Regional Opportunity Council) said that he and executive director Leo Renaud will meet with Sen. Edward Kennedy, then with OEO officials, in Washington sometime after Jan. 19.

The OEO office in New York also gave WEMBROC an additional 30 days during which to phase out, now giving the organization to the end of March.

Joining the WEMBROC representatives in Washington for the meeting will be Ivan Ashley, director of the Service Corps, part of the Massachusetts Division of Community Affairs. This division is the state economic opportunity office, and gives technical aid to all community action programs.

McCabe says that assuming funding for Head Start comes through, new office space will have to be found since the funding cut of $51,000 including the WEMBROC headquarters in Waltham.

If Head Start does not get funded, and no funds come for the on-the-job training program which ends in March, the entire WEMBROC program will end and 37 people will be out of work.

On the staff, in addition to professionals who direct and teach and act as consultants for the projects, there are 17 area residents, including five from Arlington, who will be out of work.

McCabe is upset about the funding cut because, as he says, "no consideration at all has been given to 150 children being served." For these preschoolers there is no alternative to Head Start.

Even while the program was funded not all qualified children were able to participate. Arlington has seven to 15 children on its waiting list.

In a recent interview with a Boston newspaper the OEO director in New York said OEO and HEW were looking for a new agency to administer Head Start in this area. McCabe says that if this were to happen, the Arlington Community Action Council would prefer to see Head Start go back to the public school administration where it was before WEMBROC was created.

MANY SPECTACULAR VIEWS will be available to residents of the new elderly apartment, including this one of First Parish Unitarian Church. From the Mystic street side of the building residents will get a view of the Prudential building and Boston. (Advocate Staff Photo)

Town Employees Reject Wage And Benefit Increase

Arlington Local 680, Municipal Employees Union, has rejected the town's wage and benefit package offer for 1970 and the matter has been referred to an advisory board in accordance with provisions of the present union contract.

According to Town Manager Donald Marquis, the negotiations have been underway since the fall and the town's final offer included a 6.5 % across-the-board wage increase, one personal day off per year, and an increase in the Blue Cross/Blue Shield plan in the area of major medical coverage.

The Advisory Board consists of one representative from the town, one from the union and one from the Massachusetts State Board of Conciliation and Arbitration.

The final say is up to the town meeting. The Advisory Board is empowered only to prepare an article for the Warrant. The town will prepare an article and the union may do so as well, Marquis said.

The Manager pointed out that now that the union has rejected the town's offer, that offer is not binding on what recommendation will be made to the town meeting.

The Finance Committee told the School Committee on Tuesday that it is going to recommend only a 3 % increase for all town employees, including the teachers.

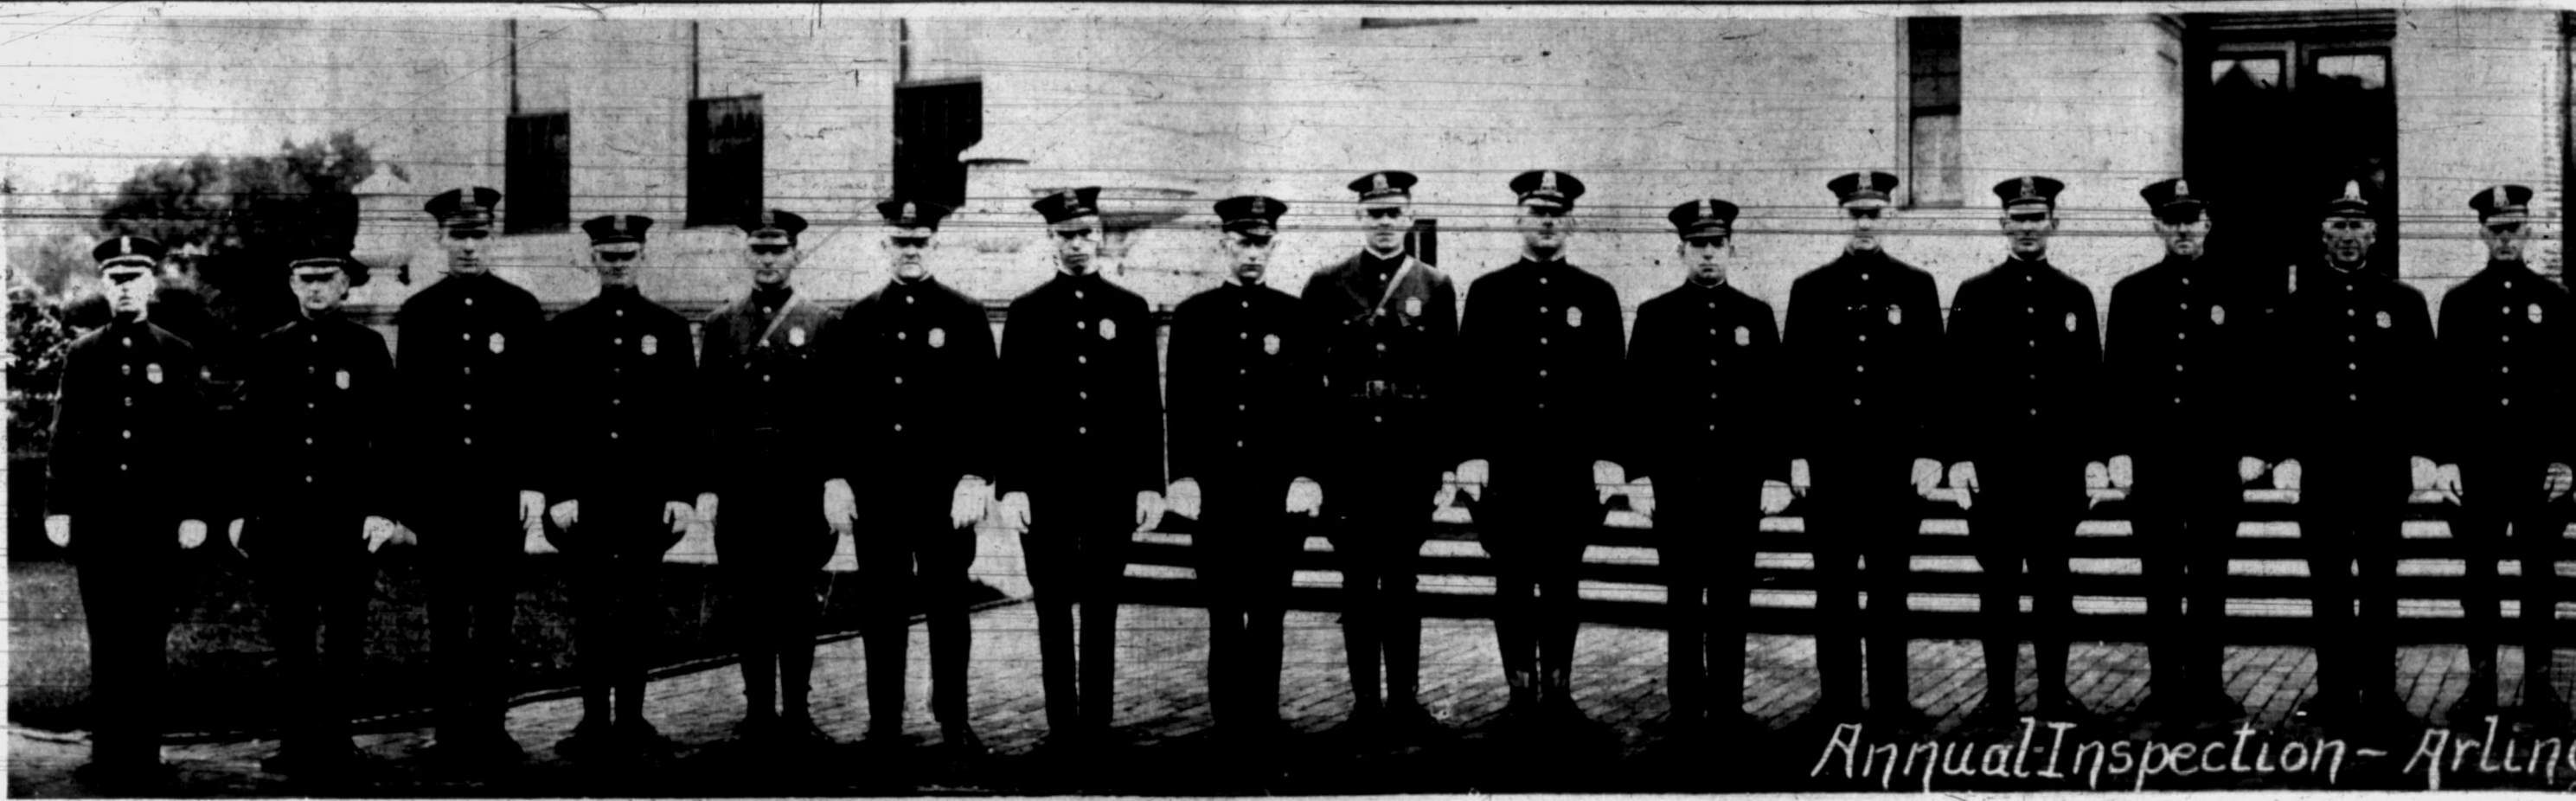

The Warrant will close next Monday night at the Selectmen's meeting.

Collins' Corner

By Leonard Collins

As noted on the photo, the year was 1925 and that, my friends, was 45 years ago come next October. Much has happened in the months since, but many will remember the gentlemen standing in front of our Town Hall, and one must admit they look in pretty good shape.

The names of this group will be printed next week in this column, so save the picture, and see how many faces you recognize. The Arlington Police Dept. had at that time, a chief, one lieutenant, and three sergeants, 27 patrolmen and no captains.

Today we have two captains, eight lieutenants, 12 sergeants, 67 patrolmen and still, of course, one chief, who by the way, was our first captain.

As of this writing the Department is short eight men due to resignations for various reasons. So while many of you readers are perusing the models in the picture, allow us to bring back a few memories of that year of our Lord 1925.

In the dancing world which, by the way, was very popular, we see names of band leaders such as Mal Hallet, Morey Pearl and a former Arlingtonian named Karl Rohde. Nora Bayes was the headliner at B.F. Keith's. Anne Nichols at the Castle Sq. in "Abie's Irish Rose," one of the greatest money makers in theatrical history, the Ziegfeld Follies at the Colonial with that real funny man W. C. Fields, and George M. Cohan, in person, at the Hollis.

Interestingly, the life of George M. is now playing in a musical at the Colonial. Mary Pickford was portraying Little Annie Rooney, and for those who liked a wee bit of spice in their lives the "Speed Girls" were at the Old Howard, but 45 years later they would be very "slow ladies" and very much over-dressed.

It was in 1925 when Pittsburgh, with Pie Trayner, won the World Series that saw Walter Johnson winning two games for Washington, and President Calvin Coolidge saying that a policeman was not an employee, but a public official.

He also said a member of our legislature should serve for nothing, with a few "bucks" given for expenses.

Boy, oh boy, how times have changed, and how Cal's suggestion fell on very very close-circuited ears. For those interested our cops starting in received the sum of $4.75 per diem, and they worked seven days a week. Each succeeding year they received a 25 cent a day increase for five years.

The chief received $3000 per year, the lieutenant $2600 and the sergeants $2400 and in case you are still listening, the tax rate was $30. Prices, well, gasoline sold for 35 cents per gallon. Rents were around $50 to $60 per month, and Meyer Jonasson & Co. had some nice muskrat coats for the tidy sum of $250.

A Cadillac was priced from $2995 to $4495, a Hudson for $1830, a Paige for $2555, and a Kissell for $2350.

And if memory serves the writer correctly, very few members of our local constabulary purchased $250 coats for their mates or many of the cars mentioned.

So look over the fine group pictured above, and next week we will mention their names, and other interesting details.

So, in closing, the writer would like to quote a famous doctor who said (and this is in 1925) "We all overdress, and all should wear just enough to keep from being arrested." And he said also "Women should wear short skirts." Wonder if he is still around to see what a great prophet he was.

Referred By Board

A communication from the State Department of Education advising that a course on Drug Education through Community Action will be given by Dr. Henry J. Gurney at the Mass. Institute of Technology, 77 Mass. ave., Cambridge, beginning Feb. 2, from 8 to 10 p.m. has been referred to the Drug Committee by the Board of Selectmen.

That Man About Town

By MAT

It seems there's no way out.

Everybody has got to have a raise. The town employees the teachers, the policemen and the firemen and you. You'll be unhappy if your boss doesn't give you a raise this year and so will the teachers and the town employees.

You'll probably not get as much of a raise as you'd like, but the teachers and the town employees probably won't either. But then you'll be using your raise to pay for their raise when your tax bill arrives next summer.

So smile and say "it's a vicious circle" or, "you can't win." Or say anything else you'd like to say. You may even jump up and down a few times or stamp your feet if you please - but just remember to pay your tax bill.

And while you're paying it, try to think of a way to keep from having to face a bigger increase next year. If you think a 34% increase in two years is a big jump just wait until 1971.

At this rate it will take about six years to double the tax rate. The experts at town hall predict it'll only take five years. And they're probably right.

Think about it. Think about how much longer the town can afford to continue on its present way. Now for the hard one: think about a solution.

The 1969 School Facilities Survey Committee which was given $60,000 by last year's town meeting to procure and independent study of school needs has apparently done so. But the committee, so vocal last summer and so desirous of having people come to its meetings to express opinions, has apparently had a change of heart.

According to reports, it received a recommendation from the Booz, Allen, Hamilton firm, but before releasing the recommendation to the public asked that the firm develop more information about alternative proposals.

At this writing the boss was urging the committee to let the public have a peek at what the $60,000 bought. The committee has been meeting in closed door sessions and hasn't released any information in time for 10 registered voter articles for the 1970 town meeting. The Warrant closes next Monday.

Last night (Wednesday) the Committee had scheduled a meeting to discuss the report and, according to some members, possible warrant articles to be submitted before the Monday deadline. The boss was planning to attend last night's meeting. Perhaps we will know more about the situation next week.

There's even a hint of a Special Town Meeting in May to consider articles coming from the consultant's report as interpreted by this committee. How about that?

THE BOX SCORE. At the Selectmen's meeting, all present. At the School Committee meeting, all except John Morine.

The School Committee will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the Junior High Industrial Arts Building. Before discussing the budget they will try to finish this week's agenda, 14 items of which were not covered during the four hour session which discussed only six items - most at length.

TO THE EDITOR:

In the town of Arlington there are some 6,500 or over elderly citizens. There is a name for everything, even the problem of growing old! It is called "gerontology."

Don't underestimate the elective power of these latter-aged citizens. Therefore let all politicians take notice. They can boost you into office or boot you out.

Just about one in every seven elderly citizens are registered voters and the number is steadily increasing.

Also mournful data shows that Arlington with the revaluation of the past year, the head of the house who is 65 or over is faced with the loss of his home because he cannot meet payments.

Perhaps you ask "Who are these older Arlingtonians and why do so many over aged Pops and Moms prefer to live alone when 85 percent have children or relatives in brackets above poverty's belt?"

Answer is clear! In most instances they are fiercely independent folk who don't want to be beholden to anyone, but wish to work out their remaining years unhindered, uncensored and unsupervised.

Compulsory retirement causes a financial hardship for a majority of these old people of which one in every five has an income of only $1500 or less a year. Fewer than half have $2500, inclusive of Social Security.

Therefore what benefits we can bestow upon our eldering citizens is certain to receive everyone's approval. For it is meet, right and our bounden duty to play our seniors through life's short postlude with as much mood music as possible.

Sincerely yours,
Thomas M. Kelly
Town Meeting Member Prec. 11

TO THE EDITOR:

From beautiful downtown Arlington the Roen and Marquis laugh-in continues with their latest attempt to sock-it-to-the-custodial staff. The following work order was sent to all schools:

"At a meeting held at the office of the Administrative Assistant to the Town Manager, Mr. Michael Sullivan, with Mr. Raymond Ouellette, Acting Superintendent of Public Works, and Mr. John Smith, Supervisor of Custodians, it was agreed:

The custodians of each school will shovel and sand all sidewalks within reasonable distance of the school in which they are employed.

For example: At the Peirce School, the custodians would be expected to shovel and sand the walks from the school to Summer Street, along Park Avenue Extension and Newland Road, but not the sidewalk along Summer Street. This would be in addition to the walks within the school grounds."

It is not by mere coincidence that out of 15 schools the Peirce School was chosen to be used as the "for instance," for the whole thing started here back in early December when Miss Conley, Principal of the Peirce School, called the secretary at Maple Street to ask her to have the Public Works sand the icy sidewalks on Park Ave. Ext.

The secretary decided to take it upon herself to tell the Principal that the custodians were to sand the walks. When I received this order, I immediately contacted Mr. John Smith, Supervisor of Custodians, and he told me that my responsibility went only from the school doors to the sidewalks and not down the full length of the streets surrounding the Peirce School estate.

It seems that this secretary, who for years has been running the School Department, now wants to expand her authority to include the custodial staff also.

For those of you not familiar with the Peirce School area, the sidewalks from Blossom Street to Summer Street on both Park Ave. Ext. and Newland Road are approximately 600 feet long, a total of 1200 feet. In addition to that we have another 600 feet or so of walks surrounding the immediate building which Mr. Kelly and I have shoveled by hand for the past six years. No snow blower was ever given to this school.

Ever since I wrote a few letters in the Arlington papers criticizing the administration, the pressure has been put on. I expected some reprisals to occur a la Belmont Police Officer Kehoe's "Little Siberia," but nothing as drastic as this. Why even in Russian Siberia, the prisoners are not ordered to shovel this much snow.

I am 52 years old and Mr. Kelly is 46 and we feel that shoveling and sanding 1800 feet of sidewalk is a little too excessive, say by at least 1700 feet, so we have decided to heed the warning of the American Heart Association, which tells us that anyone over 40 should leave the shoveling to someone else. We will shovel these walks on one condition that Dan Roen and Dick Marquis shovel along side by side with us.

Someone ought to tell the team of Roen and Marquis that slavery was abolished a long time ago, and that forced servitude, whether it be in public service or private industry, has long since left the American scene.

I was a town meeting member

back when we had a real Town Manager and I remember distinctly Mr. Monahan's pleas for more funds to purchase sidewalk plows specifically for the plowing of the sidewalks surrounding our schools. For changing all of this, Roen and Marquis should be recommended for the fickle finger of fate award. What's the matter with you guys down the Town Hall - can't you take a joke?

Is this anyway to treat a man who has just paid a real estate tax of $1000.00 1/6 of my salary back to the town?

In the 13 years that I've been employed by the town this is the first Christmas bonus I ever received from them, 1200 additional ft. of walks to shovel. Thank God the Peirce School is located real close to the Symmes Hospital.

Mt. Gilboa Improvement Group

Members of the Mt. Gilboa Improvement Association met with the Board of Selectmen Monday night seeking an improvement in road conditions on Orient ave. and a footpath in the area.

The Board members explained that nothing could be done about the acceptance of part or all of Orient ave. as a street this year and that representatives of the group should talk to the Town Counsel to discuss the possibility of inserting an article in this year's Warrant requesting funds to make a footpath or at least clear off a section between Orient ave. and Summit st.

William Buckley, President of the Association, explained to the Board that one of the most serious problems in the area is that of Capt. Mahoney Named Arlington Civil Defense Dir.

Town Manager Donald Marquis this week appointed Fire Capt. Charles Mahoney as town Civil Defense Director, a post which had been vacant since the death of John P. Dempsey in September.

In announcing the appointment the Manager said the emphasis in the Arlington Civil Defense program will shift from one of identifying and stocking fallout shelters to coordination of departments and resources in the event of natural disasters or major emergencies.

To facilitate this, the Civil Defense Office has been placed under Fire Chief Robert Blomquist and the new director will report to him.

Capt. Mahoney's job as Civil Defense Director will be in addition to his regular duties with the fire department and he will be compensated separately for the CD work. His total pay will be equivalent to that of a deputy fire chief, the Manager said, but he will still hold the rank of Captain. "Much of his Civil Defense work will be on off-duty time," the manager said, "including nights and weekends."

Mahoney has been a captain since 1964 and is the top man on the list for appointment to deputy chief, should a vacancy occur. He was one of three fire captains out of 10 in the department who applied for the post as CD Director.

Marquis said the new director's first job would be to organize a plan of action for coordinating the fire, police, public works, and hospital resources.

A mock emergency will be staged in the fall to test the new plan, Marquis stated.

flooding at the corner of Summer st. and Orient ave.

Werner Carlson told those present that there is a spring in the area and that in the winter this presents a problem of water freezing causing holes to form.

Selectman Joseph P. Greeley called the conditions on Orient ave. "deplorable" and added that most residents must come down through that area.

Greeley went on to explain that Orient ave. is a private way, but that a recent attempt to have the entire street accepted was defeated because of cost.

A woman in the audience stated that she was unable to get up the street in her car.

Carlson added that the Association had paved part of the street.

Harry McCabe suggested that real drastic surgery on the street lines on Orient ave. might help.

Carlson added that he realized the group was late in coming before the Board this year but hoped for some help next year.

Selectman Greeley then suggested that the only solution was to petition for a street hearing before the deadline in early September.

He also suggested that the group might ask for two possibilities: one the acceptance of the entire length of Orient ave. and second the acceptance from Summer st. to Montague st.

Selectman Chairman Kevin Feeley told those present that it was much too late to do anything right now because the Board wouldn't even have time to advertise for a public hearing.

Members of the Association were then again told that the best thing for them to do at this point would be to petition for a fall hearing.

Feeley stated, "I'm afraid we're up against a stone wall."

The second item discussed by the Association and the Board was a proposed path from Orient ave. to Summit st.

It was explained that this approximately 100 foot sector drops from 100 to 125 feet and that youngsters going to the Peirce School have to crawl over this ledge area or else take a long way around.

A total of some 30 to 40 youngsters were said to use this shortcut.

Selectman Chairman Feeley said that he felt that the Board, Town Manager and Town Counsel should look into the feasibility of a path-way.

Greeley again reminded those present from the area that they were bringing problems before the Board "very late in the day."

Greeley then added that there is no conception at this point as to how much money would be involved.

The Board then felt that the residents might now want to think about an article inserted into this year's Warrant seeking the footpath or at least the clearing of a sector for the youngsters to walk on.

The residents of the area present were then reminded that they could check with the Town Counsel on the matter of inserting an article.

Annual Withdrawal

Selectmen Monday night received and signed the annual withdrawal order for accumulated interest from the Cemetery Perpetual Card Fund in the amount of $31,407.24, to be transferred to current funds in the Town Treasury.

School Comm. Votes On Drug Education In-Service Program

The School Committee voted approval of Supt. Bert Roens' suggestion that a qualified teacher now on the high school faculty begin an in-service program, educating teachers on the drug problem, so that they could relay this information to their classes.

The School Committee will write to the Selectmen telling them that the scheduling of the Knights of Columbus carnival at Peirce Field during the school year is an inconvenience because of baseball and softball team schedules and physical education classes needing the field. Selectmen will be asked to change the location of the Knights of Columbus carnival and use Peirce during the summer.

The issue of the Bishop auditorium was tabled for one week to give PTA representatives a chance to consult with building maintenance supervisor Anthony Quattrocchi about his report to the committee this week that the room could not be partitioned because the roof could not support the weight of partitions.

The committee voted no action on a program to teach all fourth graders to swim at the Arlington Boys' Club. The one-hour classes given 10 days in succession, which would have started half an hour before the end of the school day, would cost $20,000 for lessons and transportation from after the February vacation through 1971.

Clerk's Office Open Saturday

The Office of the Town Clerk will be open from 9 to 5 on Saturday Jan. 24, which is the last day for town meeting members who are candidates for re-election to give written notice thereof, and on Saturday Jan. 31, which is the last day for submitting all nomination papers for the certification of signatures.

Nomination papers may be obtained at the Town Clerk's Office until Jan. 29 at 5 only by candidates or persons presenting the signed authorizations of such candidates to secure such papers.

Only One Article On Warrant Now

Only one article had been inserted in the Annual Town Warrant as this paper was going to press this week.

The Warrant was officially opened Jan. 2, and will close Monday at 7:15 p.m.

The article inserted was brought to the Selectmen's office during the first day the Warrant was open. The only article thus far reads in part as follows:

To see if the Town will vote to adopt a related ratio rate factor; said factor to be applied to the total assessed property valuation of the town each year; said factor to represent the dollar value per thousand of legally assessed total property valuation and determine the property tax rate limit per thousand on all properties which may be subject to legal assessment practice of Arlington and the Commonwealth.

Meanwhile, one question to be placed on the ballot at Town Election has been received. This reads as follows:

"To see if the Town will vote to accept the provisions of Section 9E of Chapter 32B of the General Laws as amended by placing the following question on the Ballot for the 1970 Town Election.

"Shall the Town, in addition to the payment of fifty per cent of a premium for contributory group and health insurance for employees retired from service of the Town and their dependents, pay a subsidiary or an additional rate."

Asks Police Check On Hospital Calls

Selectman John Bullock has asked Town Manager Donald R. Marquis if the police department could make a survey of how many calls are received asking the direction to Symmes Hospital.

Bullock also suggested that more signs be placed around town pointing the direction to the hospital.

Commission May Recommend Changes In Auto Insurance

State Representative Ned Dever told the Town Meeting Association last week that the Governor's special auto insurance study commission, of which he is a member, is considering legislation that would eliminate automobile property damage liability insurance as it now exists in Massachusetts.

The proposal is to replace this type of insurance with a system that would provide payment within 15 days for repair of an automobile or other property damaged in an auto accident.

Dever said details of the plan are not yet final, but the objective is to reduce personal injury claims resulting from auto accidents.

Massachusetts leads the nation in personal injury claims with twice as many claims per year as the next highest state, New York. "The national average is one personal injury claim out of every seven accidents," he said. "And in Massachusetts the Registrar of Motor Vehicles reports the ratio is close to one to one," Dever said.

He pointed out that the reason is because insurance companies here are often reluctant to pay off property damage claims. As a result, this generates more personal injury claims by people who have to sue to get money to fix their car.

Ninety per cent of the personal injury claims in Massachusetts are settled for less than $1,000, Dever said. "If people could get their car fixed quickly, then personal injury claims would drop dramatically," he predicted. Dever said that other aspects of the proposal include retention of the compulsory insurance system, but a possible switch to free and open competition among the insurance companies in setting rates.

Rates are now set by the State Insurance Commissioner.

TO THE EDITOR:

The high moral tone of Mr. Gross' Dec. 11 letter concerning Vietnam prompts me to question its content and his awareness of the past thirty years of American strategic and military history.

Would he consider World War II, a Rooseveltian world crusade for the Four Freedoms, to have been a moral success when by heeding the call to "bring the boys home," Communist Russia became the dominant military power in Europe and rung its iron curtain down on the hapless millions in Eastern Europe? What an outcome after an untold treasure in American lives and materials.

Dwight Eisenhower's first presidential campaign was largely built on his promise to stop the Korean War. Once elected he did that and we finished the fighting at the exact boundaries existing before hostilities but minus forty-thousand lives. What Communists could not gain in the field was theirs at the negotiating table because "doves" of that period weakened the nation's resolve to win and make quite clear to Communists that aggression will not go unchallenged.

Largely because of our Korean failure, Asian Communists were constrained to try again, this time in Vietnam; and again the "doves" are wailing that surrender chorus. How easily they write off the courageous sacrifices of our young men. They prostitute the meaning and implications of morality in their pleas to get out. How can a moral stance be assumed for pollution, urban blight, transportation, etc., in such a context?

This attitude would be ludicrous were it not so tragic a situation. The real immorality of Vietnam is in not winning and to continually ask the cream of our youth to go and fight there.

Mr. Gross' reference to some of our stalwart Congressmen raises the issue of just how did they vote on the Tonkin Gulf Resolution? Yes, that is right, we had a Democratic President then. Senator Kennedy's figures on civilian casualties are difficult to verify, what is their source? The reports of what happened at My Lai, not Song My, are at this time only allegations, not facts, and judgement of them should await a detailed search for the truth.

I would not consider "doves" unpatriotic but for some in their mindless opposition to American involvement in Vietnam, they poignantly deny their fellow Americans on the battlefield the full support they deserve from all of us here comfortably at home.

As a nation we rise or fall on how well we learn from our past mistakes, in a word, history. We have got to begin to learn from this painful process now.

TO THE EDITOR:

Replying in part to Finance Committee chairman George Rugg's timely message to local citizens and homeowners, published in last week's issue of The Advocate, I would like to offer some related ratio rate figures in comparison to current methods of establishing our tax rate.

Mr. Rugg's letter stated, "This total increase we estimate at about two million dollars. This would mean a greater increase in the 1970 tax rate than the $6 or 17% increase of 1969."

According to that statement, it will require at least a 17% increase in our current tax rate of $41, some $6.97, which would set the new rate at $47.97 in order to realize an additional two million dollars in property tax revenue, with an open-end tax rate.

Applying a related ratio rate factor of 1.2 to our total valuation of $343,000,000 would give us a tax rate of $41.16 and would produce $16,941,456 in property tax revenue. Applying a larger related ratio rate factor of 1.29 to that same total valuation of $343,000,000 would give us a tax rate of $44.25 and would produce $19,579,297.50 in property tax revenue, some $2,637,841.50 more in revenue from that source with only a $3.25 increase in our current tax rate of $41, less than half the increase suggested under current methods.

Yours truly,

Jack Curran

Houses 136 Units

Elderly Housing Development Seen Occupied During March

Arlington's 13-story, all electric, elderly housing building, located at 4 Winslow st. and Mystic st., is expected to be occupied during March.

It is hoped by the Housing Authority that those selected to occupy the 136-unit structure will be notified around the first of February.

Groundbreaking for construction of the $2,320,000 building started in March of 1968.

On the first two floors of the apartment are maintenance equipment, offices, a community room and laundry.

The remaining 11 stories, will house 12 apartment units each. Each apartment has approximately 450 square feet of space, with a bedroom, kitchen, bathroom and living room area, plus two closets and a balcony.

Actually, although the space in each apartment is the same, there are five different layouts of apartments.

The building is located on the former municipal parking lot with entrance on Winslow street from the parking lot north of the railroad tracks.

The security vestibule is on this side of the building. Here is an intercom to the rest of the building, mailboxes and a locked inner door to the building.

The northerly side of the apartment is hot-topped with space for parking 35 cars on two levels.

The maintenance area is located on the Winslow st. side of the building on the first floor.

The Mystic street and Mass. avenue sides of the building are landscaped with shrubs and benches and stone walls. Connected to the apartment are two patios.

Fire Protection

Emergency equipment for fire fighting is located throughout the building. A special standpipe inlet for water to be used in case of fire is located on the first floor.

On every floor is a fire alarm box which is connected to the fire station. Outside on the ground level of the building is an indicator which shows from which floor an alarm was sounded.

There are also hose connections and hose on each floor in a closet opposite the two elevators. These hoses will reach every section of that floor. A fire extinguisher is also stored in the elevator lobby on each floor.

Down on the ground floor is the incinerator which services the entire building. The incinerator is of anti-pollution design which will filter out particles before any smoke is released. Most of the white smoke that will be seen will be steam. Trash drops to the incinerator will be made on each floor.

The water heaters for the building are also located on the ground floor. Three boilers servicing the first three floors are located in one locked room, while the boilers for the rest of the building are in another room. In the second room is an emergency generator which will provide service for lights in the elevators, lobbies and corridors in case of power failure.

First Floor

The community room is located on the first two floors facing Mystic street. The core of the first floor area is open to the second floor ceiling giving a balcony section upstairs.

One side of the first floor section of the community room is set apart for shuffleboard. Downstairs are also a storage closet, kitchen and a laundry room with washers and dryers. Both floors have restrooms.

Also on the first floor is a lobby from the vestibule which leads to the elevator lobby.

Another entrance to the apartment is a 52-foot ramp facing Mass. avenue which leads to the parking lot adjacent to the railroad tracks.

The ramp is reinforced so that a fire truck could drive on it. It is also heated so that snow and ice will be melted.

On the second floor of the building are the offices for the Housing Authority. This four-room complex contains the director's office, a file and work room, a general office area and a board room, with two rest rooms.

H-Shaped

All but four apartments are on the top 11 floors of the apartment. The corridors upstairs are H-shaped and there are four balconies which apartments on each side of the building share. In case of fire in an apartment, a tenant could get to another apartment from the balcony.

Each apartment contains emergency equipment. There are two-way speakers and emergency alarms in the bathroom and bedroom.

Each apartment also has a sprinkler system. A heat alarm is located in the kitchen ceiling. There are also magnifying peepholes in the door to each apartment which allow residents to see out, but which do not allow anyone to see in.

The apartments are heated electrically, with three thermostats in each unit. The kitchen appliances, stove and refrigerator, are electric.

The building is heated with radiant heat with four vents in each apartment, one in the living room, two in the bedroom and a small one in the bathroom.

The architectural and engineering firm responsible for the design and construction supervision in Robert Charles Associates of Boston. General contractor is Fletcher Company of Salem.

Joseph Vahey is chairman of the Arlington Housing Authority. Members are Frederick Buckley, Myron Chase, John Cusack and John Hogan. Robert Hauser is director.

Jan. 15 Deadline On Questionnaires From Vets' Admin.

James Coyne, local Veterans Agent, warns that veterans' parents of veterans, widows and children in receipt of Veterans' Administration Pension Income Questionnaires received with November 1969 veterans' Administration checks, must be answered and returned to the Veterans' Administration by Jan. 15.

Failure to comply may mean a delay and possible suspension of Veterans' Administration benefits. Assistance in completing these forms is available at the Veterans' Department, Town Hall, Arlington.

This notice does not apply to living veterans in receipt of compensation for disabilities incurred during military duty.

Alewite Brook Recommendations Made To The MDC

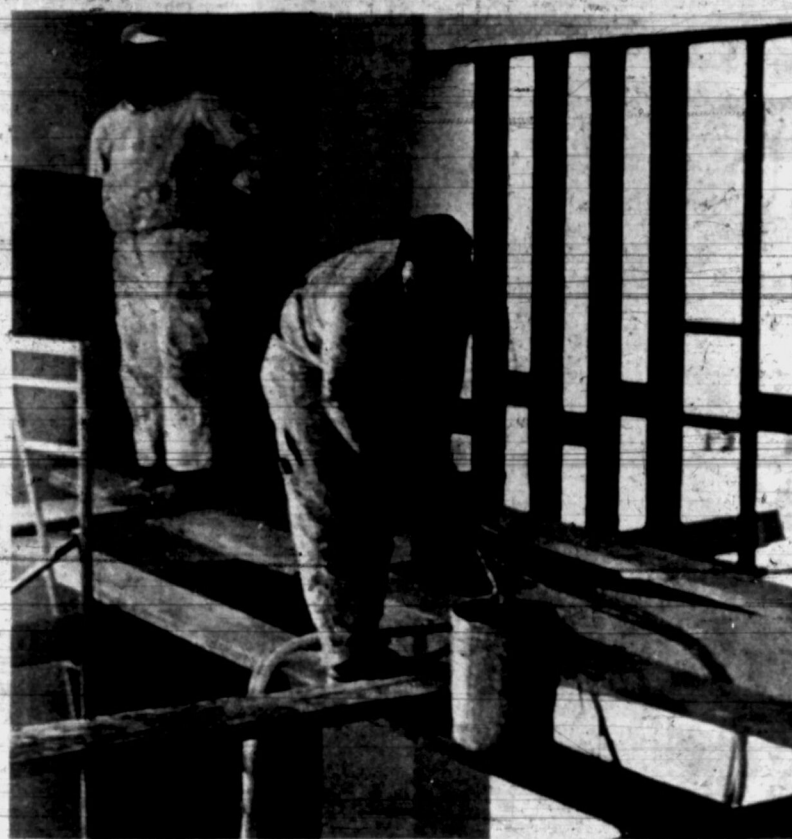

Town Manager Donald Marquis, along with the town engineer and public works director met with a representative of the Metropolitan District Commission last week to view the site of flooding conditions along the Alewife Brook, especially between Boulevard rd. and the Parkway.

Following that meeting three recommendations were made to MDC Commissioner Howard Whitmore: (1) install a pumping station at the Earhart Dam in Malden to help control flooding in the Mystic River (2) remove part of the Craddock Dam at Medford Square which is impeding water flow, and (3) the dredging of Alewife Brook to aid in a more rapid flow of the water.

Post 39 Tells Nixon of Support

Arlington American Legion Post No. 39 has sent a letter to President Richard Nixon telling him that the post at a recent meeting unanimously voted 100 per cent support of his search for an honorable peace.

The letter, signed by commander Andres J. Egan, says, "We back you and our boys in Vietnam who are fighting against Communism and propagandists within and outside our great country."

THE COMMUNITY ROOM in the new apartment which workmen are completing will be two stories high. The men here are working on the second level. Downstairs the area will include a shuffleboard court, laundry and kitchen.

Drug Committee

MI 3-1980 . . . The Number To Call For Drug Help

MI3-1980

If you have a problem or a question about drugs that is the number you can call on weekends nights starting Feb. 6.

The emergency telephone is being set up by the Drug Action Committee which recently issued a report on their survey of drug use in Arlington.

The committee agreed to try the phone for February and March on a trial basis, operating with volunteers and paying the cost of the phone with funds left from their appropriation.

The committee hopes to submit a warrant article which would allow them to set the program up on a more permanent basis.

Fifteen adults have volunteered to man the phone for the first two months. An orientation program will be held for them on Jan. 21 under the guidance of Mrs. Bela Wheeler who has conducted a similar phone service in Wakefield.

The volunteers include teachers, counselors and people familiar with the drug problem. They will work four hours a piece on the Friday and Saturday nights from 7 to 11 p.m.

Symmes Hospital is donating the temporary room in which the telephone line will be installed by New England Telephone Company. The Arlington Police Department has offered to get volunteers to the hospital in case of bad driving conditions.

The Drug Action Committee emphasizes that the service will be confidential. Anyone with questions about drug and drug users who need information will be served.

Asks For Mailers

Mrs. Beatrice Rogers, 3 Freeman st., chairman in Arlington for the 1970 March of Dimes campaign, asks that those who have not already returned their mailers received from The National Foundation - March of Dimes to do so at their earliest convenience.

"Progress through research has done so much in recent years to uncover the causes of birth defects; yet so much more must be done," Mrs. Rogers said. "In our society today a quarter of a million newborn babies are denied their rightful heritage of sound health," Mrs. Rogers adds.

The March of Dimes supports more than 100 Birth Defects Centers across the nation to help these infants. Throughout this network are outstanding medical teams who are treating and rehabilitating young victims of birth defects. Many other March of Dimes-supported scientists are carrying on research which, hopefully, one day will prevent these tragedies.
